

Letter of Commitment for 2022 Youth "Eco-Innovation · Green Action" Competition & Eco-City "Innovation Star" Competition

I/This team (Tertiary Institute/Enterprise/Organisation) herein states that we have independent and complete copyright, patents and other intellectual property rights to the works submitted for the competition. All the contents of the submission do not infringe the legitimate rights and interests of others or organisations (including copyright, patent right, trademark right and other rights). We shall be responsible for the legality, authenticity, integrity and validity of all information and materials provided. We shall uphold integrity throughout the entire process of project submission and evaluation, etc.

In case of breach of the above commitments, I/this team (Tertiary Institute/Enterprise/Organisation) will voluntarily withdraw from the Competition. I/This team (Tertiary Institute/Enterprise/Organisation) is responsible for all the legal disputes caused by this, and it has nothing to do with the organisers. If any loss is caused to the organisers, I/this team (Tertiary Institute/Enterprise/Organisation) shall bear the corresponding responsibility.

Participants from enterprises/organisations to affix their enterprise/organisation stamp.

Participants who are joining in an individual capacity/from tertiary institutes to provide their signatures and fingerprints

Date: